This is a heat map that shows the frequency of successful shots on goal by location. The more red a hexagon, the greater the number of goals shot from that location. This data is from the 2013-2014 NHL season. Individual shots are visualized as red points.  -- Goutham Kandru '16